

GEU- ODL Frequently Asked Questions (FAQ)

- What is GEU ODL?

Graphic Era Directorate of Online and Distance Learning is a platform that provides opportunities to individuals from all strata of society to pursue their respective interests and improve their standard of knowledge whilst enhancing their career growth.

- What is Distance Education?

Distance education is a mode of learning or pursuing a degree for students who may be unwilling to join a regular college due to multiple reasons. This involves a student to study online, wherein the university shares study material to the student via their online portal for their reference.

- What are the benefits of distance education?

Distance learning enables an individual for continuous learning and development for the enhancement of their careers, regardless of physical and geographical constraints.

- How will I receive the study material for my course?

The study material will be mailed to your mentioned primary address and will also be uploaded on to the e-portal.

- What language will the study material be in?

All study material, and the medium of instruction, will be English.

- Are the study material downloadable for future reference?

Yes, you may download the study material once uploaded.

- Do I have to pay additional fees to avail the study material?

No, there are no additional charges to avail study material. Your course fees is all-inclusive.

- Will the study material provided by the university be enough to clear my course exams?

Yes, the study material provided by the university is efficient and resourceful enough to gain a thorough understanding of the subject. However, one must always read beyond the prescribed